

千古仙尊

前传

枫珊天涯 著

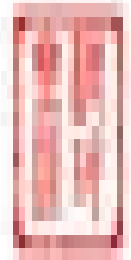

万吉仙宮

前伟

枫月无涯 著

Everlasting Immortal Firmament Prequel -

Chapter 01-03

Table of Contents

- 1. Chapter 1
- 2. Chapter 2
- 3. Chapter 3

Chapter 1

Adfly: Previous Chapter | TOC |

Previous Chapter | TOC |

---

Gu Hai

At the Capital City, in the Han Hai Mansion

The land in the capital city was too costly, even if it was the suburbs few people could afford it, and in the suburbs of this capital city, several hundred acres of land was occupied by a mansion, few people would think in this seemingly exorbitant city, a mansion would occupy such a large piece of land. Not to mention the scenery here was quite beautiful. If someone wanted to take a vacation, this place fit the description.

But this villa was rarely known to the outsiders, and it was not even reported by anyone before. It was somewhat unusually different to others.

“Hidden wealthy and powerful people!” In this world, there is always some people who, for a variety of reasons, don’t want to appear in public, and what’s more amazing is that their wealth is not known by the public.

Han Hai villa was owned by Gu Hai, and today was his thirtieth birthday, but Gu Hai did not like to celebrate his birthday like other rich people or any other kind of events. This was also the characteristic of the ‘hidden wealthy and powerful people’ — — — — — they are very low key!

Wearing an azure gown, Gu Hai was quietly sitting in the library, and placed in front him was one unfinished Weiqi board, but this board wasn’t a standard Weiqi board with 19 checkered lines, this board had checkered lines, and although it’s just a difference of one line but this Weiqi had infinite number of variations.

Gu Hai was holding a black piece, but still didn’t place it on the board, he was contemplating about how to finish this endgame.

This endgame didn’t belong to this era, in fact, in this era no one was more capable than Gu Hai in standard Weiqi with nineteen checkered lines.

Gu Hai had challenged world-class top players but till now he had not been defeated, not even once. He even sought some hidden masters and national players, but he was still able to win against them, so for now it could be said that in this world there was no one who was above him in Weiqi.

Gu Hai also once stood at the peak in the world of Weiqi. He haply obtained an unfinished chess board and due this he was completely excited. This chess board was the previous chess board with 20 horizontal and vertical lines, and it was an ancient endgame which up till now it had several hundreds or maybe thousands of years of history.

When he saw this Weiqi board he was also secretly scared, as the layout above this board was clever and breathtaking. The main intricacy about this Weiqi board was that it was not in anyway ordinary. If it was standard Weiqi board with 19 horizontal and vertical lines, then naturally Gu Hai would not fear it, but this Weiqi board had an extra line. This meant that there were countless more possibilities, so temporarily, Gu Hai had no way of solving it.

But Gu Hai was certain that whoever created this Weiqi board, his Weiqi skills is above his, however Gu Hai's Weiqi skills were naturally not bad either, as he had been studying this Weiqi board for several months, and now he had finally understood the general direction, but a trace of inspiration was needed to finish it.

.....

The door was quietly opened, and one elder dressed in traditional clothes came in. He was the steward of this Han Hai Villa, and he had worked here for nearly thirty years. He had been this villa steward from Gu Hai's parents time, and he had also watched over Gu Hai while he was growing up!

The old steward didn't understood other people's skills, but he knew that Gu Hai's level of skills could be called as absolutely legendary.

From the time Gu Hai was young, he was fond of Weiqi, to point that it became an obsession. Moreover, Gu Hai was extremely talented in Weiqi, as his comprehension skills of Weiqi were extremely terrifying, because after Gu Hai leaves after defeating all the Weiqi masters, if not for him not liking to be highprofiled, he wouldn't know how many Weiqi awards Gu Hai would have collected!

But due to Gu Hai's parents both dying in an accident, another talent of Gu Hai was revealed, and this was the talent in business. At that time Gu Hai was only twenty years old, and his parents left him not only this villa, but also left their business organisation which was in a great deal of mess.

But Gu Hai was like a natural born businessman, full of business sense, as well as with adequate and decisive means, and through a series of measures, he not only was successful in solving the mess left by his parents, but also made his personal assets grow over by many times.

In only three years, Gu Hai already made it such that the business could keep running on its own without him personally managing it, and then Gu Hai could hide in the background. Now that 10 years have passed, Gu Hai himself wasn't clear how much wealth he had accumulated.

"Oh, Uncle Hu, you came. What can I do for you?" Gu Hai eventually didn't place the piece on the Weiqi board, rubbed his eyes, got ready to get up, and seeing the somewhat dazed old steward standing at entrance, he inevitably asked doubtfully.

"Ah!" That old steward woke up, and in an apologetic tone said, "Young Master, I did not mean to disturb young master, and I also requests young master not to blame!"

"Uncle Hu, you are older than me. Do not call me young master, instead directly call me by my name!" Gu Hai had always respected this steward who had been working for Gu Family for nearly 30 years, and he can be counted as the last of his loved ones, "Besides what do you mean disturb, this is your home, like me, you're also the master!"

"I have been calling you young master for thirty years, and am already accustomed to it. I cannot change!" The old steward shook his head, continued speaking, "Young master, I only wanted to tell you that the collection of the 100,000 endgame puzzles have already been completed. Young master can now go to library and take a look."

Gu Hai was very fond of Weiqi, and naturally he was very much interested in collecting a wide variety of unfinished Weiqi boards, so he spent all of his strength across all over the country to collect endgame puzzles, and in 10 years he had already collected 100,000 endgame puzzles, and all of these endgame puzzles he has placed it inside the library.

“Oh, already 100,000?” Gu Hai suddenly laughed, “Ha ha, today happens to be my thirtieth birthday, and it seems that god has sent me a gift!”

Gu Hai got up and went to the library, that unfinished endgame with 20 checkered lines not being solved for the time being. To change the way of his thinking and gain that inspiration he needed, he wanted to take a look at the 100,000 endgame puzzles.

Gu Hai alone went inside the library, as for old steward he naturally had his own work to complete. Not to mention the fact that Gu Hai, while researching about Weiqi, did not want to be interrupted.

The library was large, and it was filled with all kinds of books, but the 100,000 endgame puzzles were not here in the library, but were placed in an underground cellar below the library, and in this cellar was where the endgame puzzles gathered from all over the country were placed.

Every day the cellar was cleaned by the servants, so Gu Hai didn't feel any sort of discomfort. Gu Hai picked a endgame puzzle, carefully glanced at it, and with a smile said, “Interesting.” He then continued to carefully look down.

Gu Hai had waited till all 100,000 endgame puzzles had been collected, and only then had he started to look, mainly because if the endgame puzzles were too little, then it would not bring any help to him, but 100,000 endgame puzzles, Gu Hai hoped that the quantity will bring forth a qualitative change in his thinking, can allow him to breakthrough the bottleneck of his thinking!

Time passed by in a rush, and Gu Hai himself didn't know how many endgame puzzles he had observed, but he didn't felt tired. Instead Gu Hai's spirit had been greatly satisfied.

“Pop!” A crisp sound surprised the obsessed Gu Hai and caused him to awaken. Gu Hai took a closer look, and on the ground there was an extra black Weiqi piece. Presumably it was smuggled inside an endgame puzzle, and when Gu Hai flipped the endgame diagram that black piece was revealed.

Gu Hai, due to curiosity wanted to pick up the black Weiqi piece, and when his hand had just touched the black piece surface, Gu Hai's face revealed a sliver of surprise, and he continued and placed the black Weiqi piece on his palm center. As expected he discovered something wrong about it, as at the center of his palm the Weiqi piece slowly emitted a trace of warm heat, and he could not help but have some doubt: "What is this material?"

Gu Hai, from when he was small to when he as large, had been in contact with all types of Weiqi pieces and even he himself had a collection of tens of different Weiqi pieces made up of different materials, but did not have a single Weiqi piece which could have this effect. This was the warm jade from the legends.

But before Gu Hai could carefully study the material of the black piece, a sudden mutation arose, and the black piece levitated high in the air, while at the same time emitted an endless black aura. This black aura gradually started to expand, therein slowly enveloping the whole cellar.

At the same time the black piece emitted the aura, Gu Hai also lost his consciousness, but before losing the consciousness, Gu Hai seemingly saw a huge Weiqi board, and on that Weiqi board there were 33 checkered lines. That Weiqi board was densely filled with black and white pieces, and it should be an unfinished Weiqi board, but in the end Gu Hai was not sure whether what he saw was real or imaginary!

At the same time Gu Hai saw the Weiqi board with 33 checkered lines, Gu Hai in his heart seemingly comprehended and solved, in the blink of an eye, the previous endgame with 20 checkered lines in his mind, and solving it once again would not be even a little bit difficult for Gu Hai!

After a good while, the black aura slowly dispersed, however, with the disappearance of the black aura, Gu Hai also disappeared, and along with him the black piece as well as those 100000 endgame puzzles all disappeared. In this huge cellar only a few tables and chairs were remaining, and nothing else!

TLN:

1. Weiqi: Weiqi is is is an abstract strategy board game for two players, it's very much look like a checkerboard, it has black and white pieces and you capture a or many pieces by surrounding with pieces of opposite color. In japan it is called Go, in korean Baduk. More you can learn here. A standard Weiqi board have 19 checkered lines (19 horizontal and vertical lines).

(Also for context western chess has 18 lines including the outside ones)

2. Endgame (puzzles): In chess and chess-like games, the endgame (or end game or ending) is the stage of the game when few pieces are left on the board. (usually only kings and pawns in normal chess)

Adfly: Previous Chapter | TOC |

Previous Chapter | TOC |

Chapter 2

Adfly: | TOC |

| TOC |

---

Chapter 02: Enter Strange World

Gu Hai opened his eyes, and his brain felt wave after wave of dizziness; it somewhat felt like heavy-headedness. He felt as if his head filled with lead. After some time, Gu Hai slowly recovered and became slightly clear-headed.

But Gu Hai didn't wait to be completely recovered, but first looked at the general surrounding environment, and Gu Hai suddenly had a sliver of a surprised expression!

The forest here was overly grown, and everywhere he looked there were trees. Gu Hai was half leaning under a tall tree, and suddenly was a bit puzzled. Wasn't he looking at the endgames in the cellar below the library? How did he appear in this jungle inside, because not to mention Han Hai Villa, even in the entire Capital City there absolutely wasn't such tall trees!

"Is it someone that kidnapped me, as it must be known that although I have been acting low-key, but it is absolutely not a secret and there is always someone to know his ins and outs." But then Gu Hai once again slightly shook his head, and from his own present condition he was most likely not kidnapped, but it was rather as if someone had played a big joke on him!

Gu Hai wanted to try to stand up, but in the next moment his body slightly swayed, and like a mudball, softly landed on the tree trunk. His body was as if it had been hollowed out, and he simply could not use a sliver of strength.

Gu Hai's brows wrinkled. This was not a good thing. Gu Hai closed both of his eyes, as he wanted to carefully sort out what happened, and understand exactly what happened. Why was he not in the cellar below the library, but in this jungle inside?

Just as Gu Hai shut both of his eyes, he didn't recall what had happened, but Gu Hai 'saw' in his mind a very strange scene appearing.

There was one huge space, and in the lower region of the space, there were 100000 Weiqi Boards. Above each Weiqi board were endgames placed one by one, and these 100000 endgames also seemed to continue to be operating on their own, pieces constantly changing. While a bizarre black piece was suspended over the 100000 endgames, like a king overlooking 100000 incomplete Weiqi boards!

[ED Note: Remember Endgame is the state of the game where there are only a few pieces left so don't imagine it being one board above another like me but 100,000 boards with different chess scenarios each being played out.]

"Ah! You're awake?" One slightly tender sound rang in Gu Hai's ear. This sound interrupted Gu Hai's thoughts, and Gu Hai consciousness begin to back out from his mind, then carefully listened, wanting to clearly understand where this voice came from. One youth carrying a backpack suddenly came out from inside the jungle.

That youth was about 14-15 years old, and was wearing a very simple coarse linen robe with a lot of patches while his face was still somewhat immature.

Gu Hai looked at the innocent youth's clothes and his own surroundings environment, and once again thought of the scene in his own mind. How could he have possibly thought that he had come to an another world. Moreover it should be due to that black piece that he came to this world!

But Gu Hai in his heart was only surprised for a moment, then returned to normal right away. Although in his heart he was confused, now was simply not the time to think about this issue!

Whether it be playing chess or doing business, fretting was the most unwanted factor. Gu Hai had long been accustomed to maintaining a peace of mind in facing all difficulties, so that he could solve the problem better.

"Yes, were you attacked? Otherwise how could a man collapse in the Heisha Mountains? Fortunately you ran into me first and If I had not gotten you to this fairly safe place, you absolutely would not have woken up this safely now!” The youth curiously asked, “If not you would have encountered bandits, and they would have robbed all of your valuables on you. Even worse, if the wild animals in the mountains had seen you, then you absolutely would not have been alive!”

With rapt attention Gu Hai looked at the youth, and both of the youth’s eyes were extremely pure. He obviously was a simple child. Gu Hai then suddenly put down the vigilance in his heart, and asked back rhetorically, “What about you? How can one person alone came to these Heisha Mountains, or is it that you are fearless of the wild animals in the mountains?”

Gu Hai didn’t mention to the youth how he would repay this kindness, but this grace he had noted down in his mind for forever, and was waiting for an appropriate time. Gu Hai would naturally repay this kindness!

“Hee hee, I’ve come here for the herbs. Right, after I saw you, I thought you must be hungry, so I went out to pick some berries, just for you to eat!” The youth laughed with a ‘hei hei’, then took out the backpack from his back. Just as he had said, inside it there really were many medicinal grass and berries. The youth put down his backpack, took out some fist sized berries and handed them to Gu Hai, then continued speaking, “As for the wild animals, I don’t fear them! I know the domain of every fierce wild animal in the outer ring of the Heisha Mountains, and as long as I bypass the domains of the wild animals, they simply cannot find me.”

“Oh, looking at you, you’re only 14-15 years old. How can a man come for these herbs, don’t you have a family to worry about?” Gu Hai took the berries, while at the same time continued asking. Now that he had arrived in this world, Gu Hai must collect all the information, but some things he could not clearly ask.

The youth suddenly became somewhat low-spirited, and some sadness was visible on his face. After a long moment of silence the youth continued speaking, “My father was also a herbalist, but he died early, leaving two people, my mother at home with me. Mother is constantly ill and has a weak body, and now also lies on the bed, I also can not do heavy work, and can only come to the mountains to pick some herbs. I can also sell it to the herbal shops to earn a little for my mother’s treatments. Moreover my mother’s treatment also needs a precious herb which I cannot afford. So I can only come to mountain and try my luck.”

But the youth was only sad for a moment, then right away became cheerful, and happily said, “But today I had a pretty good day, and picked up a fairly good number of herbs. I can exchange many of them for some money, which just so happens that I can now buy a tonic and give it to my mother to nourish her body!”

This was one optimistic and very obedient child, and Gu Hai believed that this youth could be trusted.

Gu Hai shifted the subject and chatted about other things!

.....

The youth was still a little inexperienced regarding human affairs, and was simply like a white sheet. Gu hai simply did not need to resort to clever tricks, and just casually asked and got everything he wanted to know from the youth’s mouth!

The youth called Tang Chu, had just turned 15 this year, and lives in a small town at the edge of the Great Chen Empire. This small town relied on the Heisha Mountains for their development, but after all, it was too remotely located, so the population was very small.

The Great Chen Empire was one of the eight empires, but excluding the Chen Empire, Tang Chu didn’t know the name of the other seven empires, not to mention the other things!

In the Chen Empire, excluding the King of Chen, Chen Wuji, the Crown Prince Chen Taichi, and the Chen Empire’s number one beauty, Chen Xianer, other than these three person names, Tang Chu also knew nothing else. After all, Tang Chu’s town was too remotely located, and these names Tang Chu had only heard from the previous visitors that came!

But what made Gu Hai really surprised was the presence of Xiuxianists in this world, and was not those purely imaginary legends like in the previous world. Moreover in this world there were many Xiuxian sects, but these Xiuxian sects drifted in this world, and for a mortal it was simply too difficult to even touch.

The eight empires belonged to mortal countries, and mortal could also cultivate, but only had Houtian Stage Xiuxianists. Only Xiuxian sects would have Xiuxianists with higher cultivations, and according to legends the higher the cultivation of the xiuxiantist, the longer their lifespan. Besides they also had some peerless mysterious and powerful spiritual powers. They could call the wind, arouse the rains, move the mountains, fill the seas, and they could do things which humanity couldn't do!

In storybooks it was mentioned that there were some lucky ones who were selected by powerful Xiuxianists and inherited their mantle, and this was not at all empty words. Such things did exist, though it was not common, but it still existed.

Knowing this, inside that tranquil heart of Gu Hai's there were unavoidably some mighty waves, "Cultivate and become immortal, and live forever. What is this kind of temptation!" Gu Hai had some yearning in his heart.

But Gu Hai knew Xiuxian things could only be mentioned at a later date, and the most crucial thing was to get out of these Heisha Mountains. After all there were wild animals and bandits here, and it was not safe!

After talking for so long, and also after eating some berries. Gu Hai's strength was also restored, unlike before where he was soft and weak. So Gu Hai, who was leaning on the trunk, slowly stood up, and also while talking to Tang Chu, revealed his intentions to leave the mountains!

Tang Chu looked at Gu Hai, said with a smile, "Uncle Gu, it is quite late now when we will leave the mountain, and where I live there is an extra bed. Though it is a little broken, sleeping is not a problem."

Gu Hai had already said to that innocent youth to call him by his own name, but Tang Chu insisted to call Gu Hai as Uncle Gu, so Gu Hai also complied with him!

Gu Hai looking at Tang Chu with an eager expression, slightly nodded, "Good, I hope your mother does not think I'm disturbing you!"

"How could she? A guest came to our house so mother will absolutely be happy!" Tang Chu had an excited look on his face, and happily walked towards the outside of the mountain, "Uncle Gu, follow me slowly, and careful on the mountain roads!"

Gu Hai slightly smiled, and slowly followed Tang Chu walking down the hill!

Adfly: | TOC |

| TOC |

Chapter 3

Adfly: | TOC | Next Chapter

| TOC | Next Chapter

---

Feral Wolf Squad

Tang Chu was very skilled in walking down the hill, and he was treading this steep mountains like he was walking on a flat land. On one side Tang Chu was walking on the mountain, while on the other side he was also carefully watching the lush green plants on the both sides. He mainly came to the mountains to pick herbs, so naturally on the return journey he would pay more attention on the road. If by chance he came across some herbs naturally he will be pleasantly surprised!

These actions were just habits of Tang Chu. He had been picking herbs for a long time, and he would have to get accustomed to every hour and every moment whether there was a herb present or not.

However, this was basically futile effort. On this mountain, Tan Chu himself don't know how many times he had walked past it, and even if there were herbs it would have long been taken away, leaving only some useless plants!

Walking for a long time, Tang Chu also hadn't picked any herbs, but he also didn't care about it too much. Today his harvest was very good, and had already surpassed his estimate. He was naturally born an optimists, and he was already satisfied with today's harvest!

Gu Hai was similarly freely walking on the mountain road, but he was also carefully looking at the surrounding environment, not for the herbs, but he wanted to understand how the plants in this world were different from earth.

Through the observation, Gu Hai found here plants and generally much more higher and stronger than that of earth, and the life force of the plants were also much more vigorous. Moreover, he would also occasionally see some small animals, and their size was generally larger.

Moreover he clearly felt the air here was particularly good, and although the majority of credit was due to the plants here, but the air where he formerly lived in 'The Han Hai Villa' could not even compare.

Gu Hai believed if everyone lived the whole year in such an atmosphere, everyone would live longer, but also would be more healthy and this should be the Spirit Qi that Xiuxianists spoke of. Moreover this world's Spirit Qi was clearly very abundant, and was more suitable for cultivation!

"Roar!" A loud tiger roar suddenly broke the tranquility of the ravine. Feeling the source of the tiger roar, this tiger roar was coming from the front of the two people, which meant that the road in front was blocked by a tiger!

"There is a tiger in front of u!" Tang Chu was suddenly wary, and then once again with some doubt said, "No, how come there is a tiger on this road, every time I come to pick herbs I go down this road, already walked here so many times, never met a tiger!"

But Gu Hai's brows slightly frowned, and Tang Chu could not have heard, but Gu Hai had once studied different kind of tiger roars. From this tiger roar Gu Hai knew that this tiger was angry, and someone or something must have angered it!

"Uncle Gu, or we should go back, then change the road again and walk down the mountain." Tang Chu after all was still a teenager and although he dared to come to the Heisha Mountains for herbs alone, but that was because that was what life had forced upon him. Now that he also met a tiger, Tang Chu's first thought was naturally to avoid it, "I know of a path, and although it is somewhat more steep, it is much more safer than meeting a tiger!"

"Roar!" The tiger roar was once again heard, and the roar this time was louder and more irritated. Gu Hai and Tang Chu very much understood that the tiger was getting closer to them, and obviously that tiger was coming towards them.

Gu Hai complexion changed, and he clutched Tang Chu, leaped directly into the bushes, then walked deeper into the mountains. After he arrived at a 20m high tree he started directly climbing it, and at the same time signalling Tang Chu behind him to climb the tree along with him.

In the past Gu Hai was already experienced in rock climbing, so climbing a tree naturally goes without saying, and Tang Chu had grown up in the mountains, so climbing the trees came to him as easily as eating. Tang Chu even climbed up faster than Gu Hai.

Both of them quickly climbed near the top of the tree, and normally speaking, a tiger was not going to climb the tree. The tigers here are also no different from earth, so Gu Hai also didn't believe it was capable of crawling upto to such height.

Gu Hai stood on the thick branch, both eyes intently looking towards the front of the mountain road, only to see a giant tiger with lifted eyes and a white-forehead madly rushing on the mountain road. The giant tiger was about 4m long and 5m high, and compared with the tigers previously seen by Gu Hai this tiger was way too big!

[TLN: Lifted eyes depicts the ferociousness of tiger. It is believed if the corner of the eyes are lifted then it is fierce. Basically it is the normal wild tiger.]

At the abdomen of the giant tiger there were also two narrow and long cuts, and it was very difficult to imagine for Gu Hai how such a giant tiger was hurt by cold weapons. Wasn't this a giant tiger with lifted eyes and a white-forehead?

But Gu Hai immediately also came to realize, this was after all is world of cultivation, so the limit of human capabilities were unthinkable. Not to mention killing a tiger, even more unimaginable things could also be accomplished!

The giant tiger with lifted eyes and a white-forehead bolted out in fury, and less than 10m behind the giant tiger were 5 humans following it. These five people were all dressed in black robes, and in each person's hand was a broadsword with a wolf head on its hilt. The five people were madly rushing on the mountain road as if this steep mountain was simply nothing to them.

Besides, they were extremely fast, and were closely following the giant tiger.

Obviously, these five men were the cause of the abdominal wounds on the giant tiger, and the five men by no means ordinary people. They had a certain degree of cultivation in their bodies, but were only at the Houtian Stage, nothing more. If they were at the Xiantian Stage, they would be able to kill this giant tiger in the blink of an eye.

Besides, these five men were hunting that giant tiger with lifted eyes and a white-forehead,, and seemed to be nearly successful!

“Quick, brothers, there are two of my blades inside this tiger, it is already heavily injured. It can not run quickly, catch up to it and kill it!” The leading fellow among the five men loudly shouted, “Peel out its skin, deliver its leather as a gift to the Fort Lord!”

“What Elder Brother said is good, we will kill it and make clothes with its leather!” The rest of the following four men’s sound echoed.

That giant tiger was injured, and its speed was also gradually slowing down. The five people seized this opportunity, sped up and closely surrounded the giant tiger. At the same time five broadswords moved towards the giant tiger!

“Roar!” The giant tiger was furious, and hurled his body towards one of the man attacking him. That fellow who was about to get attacked, instead of drawing back, he planned on resisting head-on, and the broadsword in his hand heavily hacked towards the giant tiger head.

“Bang”

The broadsword in that fellow’s hand ruthlessly split the giant tiger’s head, “Roar!” The giant tiger furiously roared, and in the blink of an eye there was a huge wound on its head. Red blood continued to flow from inside the wound, but the giant tiger did not stop, but continued to rush towards that fellow. That fellow, due this huge momentum, was struck and flew out, and fell in the dense plants on either side of the mountain road.

This all happened in a split-second, and the remaining four people didn’t have the time to react, but could only look at their partner flying out. Immediately they brandished the broadswords in their hands and attacked the giant tiger!

The giant tiger was seriously injured was weak and had no strength and it seemed to know that it was not going to live, but the giant tiger didn’t want to escape, in fact, in the current state fleeing was useless, as sooner or later it would be surrounded!

The giant tiger turned around and continued to spring towards the other four men, while the four men were also holding their blades, but the outcome was already doomed as four people were sieging a heavily injured giant tiger. It was simply a slaughter!

Soon, the giant tiger's body was full of wounds, and it weakly fell on the ground, passing away.

The fellow who was previously hit and flew away also came out. If it was ordinary person who had been hit by such giant tiger, he would absolutely be killed or wounded, but this fellow only suffered minor injuries, and it simply did not have much of affect to him!

"Ha ha, Elder Brother, Fort Lord's brithday is coming soon. For our Feral Wolf Squad the gift this time fallen right in our lap!" one man said while laughing, "This time we'll be able to shine in the fort!"

"Ha ha ha, Who is going to say no?" Elder Brother, the leader of the squad, was similarly very excited. After all such a large tiger skin was very rare, and during the Fort Lord's birthday it was sufficient enough to be applauded. This matter was extremely related to their reputation.

,

"Ah! They are the Black Wind Village Feral Wolf Squad." Tang Chu shouted in low voice, and he could not help but blurt out.

Gu Hai heart sank, and he don't know whether or not the Feral Wolf Squad heard, but if they were found out, it was totally going to be a problem!

"Who! Who's there? Come out!" The Feral Wolf Squad boss was startled. He felt as if someone was present in their own surroundings, peeping at them, and that was why he suddenly shouted loudly!

"Who? Someone is watching us!" There was a fine line of a difference between the cultivation of the rest of the four men and their boss, and now when the heard their boss' voice they also understood that there was someone out there!

"Uncle Gu, I'm sorry!" Tang Chu apologized in a low voice, and he also understood what he did. He sould not have done that!

"It does not matter, Uncle Gu will be able to solve it!" Gu Hai gently said, and though they had been found out, but Gu Hai did not worry about it, very quickly restoring his calmness. Though it was troublesome, Gu Hai was very confident in resolving this, because compared with the giant tiger who only depended on instincts, Gu Hai was more than willing to deal with the humankind who could think, as human could only think and that was also their weak point!

Adfly: | TOC | Next Chapter

| TOC | Next Chapter